

English Grammar Worksheets

www.perfectyourenglish.com

Transitive or intransitive verb worksheet

State whether the verb is used transitively or intransitively in the following sentences.

1. The wind is blowing fiercely.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

2. The child slept soundly.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

3. Somebody knocked at the door.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

4. A dark fear appeared in the hallway.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

5. He answered the question.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

6. I have learned my mistakes.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

7. The woman went to the market.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

8. We will not tolerate injustice.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

9. I like hiking.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

For more grammar worksheets visit www.perfectyourenglish.com

10. I asked her out.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

11. I visited my parents last week.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

12. You didn't eat anything.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

13. She sat on the couch.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

14. The children laughed aloud.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

15. We have won the match.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

16. She should find a job.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

17. We should visit them one of these days.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

18. We can't wait any longer.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

19. She was anxious.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

20. It is snowing.

(Transitive/Intransitive; Verb: _____; Object: _____)

Answers

1. The wind is blowing fiercely. (Intransitive verb – is blowing; no object)
2. The child slept soundly. (Intransitive verb – slept; no object)
3. Somebody knocked at the door. (Intransitive verb – knocked; no object)
4. A dark figure appeared in the hallway. (Intransitive verb – appeared; no object)
5. He answered the question. (Transitive verb – answered; object – the question)
6. I have learned my mistakes. (Transitive verb – have learned; object – mistakes)
7. The woman went to the market. (Intransitive verb – went; no object)
8. We will not tolerate injustice. (Transitive verb – will not tolerate; object – injustice)
9. I like hiking. (Transitive verb – like; object – hiking)
10. I asked her out. (Transitive verb – asked; object – her)
11. I visited my parents last week. (Transitive verb – visited; object – my parents)
12. You didn't eat anything. (Transitive verb – eat; object – anything)
13. She sat on the couch. (Intransitive verb – sat; no object)
14. The children laughed aloud. (Intransitive verb – laughed; no object)
15. We have won the match. (Transitive verb – have won; object – the match)
16. She should find a job. (Transitive verb – find; object – a job)
17. We should visit them one of these days. (Transitive verb – visit; object – them)
18. We can't wait any longer. (Intransitive verb wait; no object)
19. She was anxious. (Intransitive verb – was; no object)
20. It is snowing. (Intransitive verb – is; no object)